First off we need to sort out how long we need the stand to be. So measure the distance between the bottom of the swingarm and the ground. Your stand will need to be at least this long to start with and then be adjustable to take the wheel off the ground. We're making this for a KTM 690 Enduro R, but as it's an 18" rear wheel, the dimensions are likely to wok for our EXC250 and just about every ...

Text Adventure Hack. Update: Version 2.1! RSS; Reply! TheZunar123. Hi everyone. I decided to work on a small EB project to get my mind off the translation for a little while. I built this using CCScript and the Zorkbound Source Code. It looks and operates exactly like Zorkbound, except it's a totally new adventure. It has twice the amount of locations as Zorkbound, and it has a few riddles for you to figure out.
