Rethinking King's Manor | The Post Hole

At least we have thought about these artistic forms, and that is what matters. Here the artist, Hans Hack, gives his views on this commissioned work.  My artwork has not initially developed out of a certain concept but out of a combination of interests and my urban environment. I am fascinated by the aesthetics of so called 'traditional and tribal' art from South and North America, the Pacific and Africa. …

What's the Main Thing We Should Learn from the Big Twitter Hack…

As we reported at the time, on July 15, hackers gained control of a number of Twitter "Blue Checkmark" accounts. Twitter hands out Blue Checkmarks to accounts that exert heavy influence and have verified identities. That status permits many parody accounts to operate without generating confusion over who is really tweeting, the account or the parody.
